Defendant U.S. Probation Officer

DEFENDANT: Steve Nesbit
CASE NUMBER: 3:15cr52

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant will abide by all rules of the Minor Protection and Restriction Program of the U.S. Pretrial Services and Probation Office. The defendant shall submit to a mental health evaluation and sex offender assessment as directed by the probation officer. The defendant shall participate in any treatment program, including for sexual deviancy, which may include polygraph testing, if recommended by these evaluations. The defendant shall submit to periodic polygraph testing as directed by the probation officer. No violation proceedings will be based solely on the results of a polygraph examination or a valid Fifth Amendment refusal to answer a polygraph question.

The defendant shall submit his person, residence, place of business, computer, or vehicle to a warrantless search, conducted and controlled by the U.S. Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release; failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to a search pursuant to this condition.

The defendant shall participate in an approved program of substance abuse testing and outpatient or inpatient substance abuse treatment as directed by their supervising officer; and abide by the rules of the treatment program. The defendant shall not obstruct or attempt to obstruct or tamper, in any fashion, with the efficiency and accuracy of any prohibited substance testing. The defendant shall undergo a mental health evaluation and participate in a mental health treatment program as directed by the supervising officer.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 3563, the defendant is required to register under the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act, and must comply with the requirements of that Act as directed by the probation officer.

Pursuant to the Adam Walsh Child Protection Act of 2006, the defendant will keep the registration current in each jurisdiction in which he resides, is employed, or is a student. The defendant shall, no later than three business days after each change in name, residence, employment or student status, appear in person in at least one jurisdiction in which he is registered and inform that jurisdiction of all changes in reporting information. Failure to do so may be a violation of his conditions of supervised release and may be a new federal offense punishable by up to ten years.

The defendant is prohibited from accessing any on-line computer service at any location (including employment or education) without prior written approval of the U.S. Probation Office or the Court. This includes any Internet Service Provider, bulletin board system or any other public or private computer network. Any approval shall be subject to conditions set by the U.S. Pretrial Services Probation Office or the Court with respect to that approval.

The defendant shall consent to the U.S. Probation Office conducting periodic unannounced examinations of his computer system(s), which may include retrieval and copying of all memory from hardware/software and/or removal of such system (s) for the purpose of conducting a more thorough inspection and will consent to having installed on his/her computer(s), at his/her expense, any hardware/software to monitor his/her computer use or prevent access to particular materials. The defendant hereby consents to periodic inspection of any such installed hardware/software to insure it is functioning properly. The defendant shall provide the U.S. Probation Office with accurate information about his entire computer system (hardware/software); all passwords used by him; and his Internet Service Provider(s); and will abide by all rules of the Computer Restriction and Monitoring Program.

The defendant will not own or possess any type of camera, photographic device or equipment (including video recording equipment) without the written approval of the U.S. Pretrial Services & Probation Officer.

The defendant shall pay restitution in the amount of $2,500 through the Clerk of the U.S. District Court. Restitution is due and payable immediately. The defendant shall pay 25% of the defendant’s gross income per month, through the Federal Bureau of Prisons Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If a restitution balance remains upon release from imprisonment, payment is to commence no later than 60 days following release from imprisonment to a term of supervised release in monthly payments of at least 10% of the defendant’s gross monthly income during the term of supervised release and thereafter as prescribed by law. Notwithstanding establishment of a payment schedule, nothing shall prohibit the United States from executing or levying upon property of the defendant discovered before and after the date of the judgment in this case.
